Please pinch me!

Wait...don't because if I am dreaming do not wake me!

I am so excited for the summer and to shed these layers and break out into the beautiful colors, patterns, and fabrics that are here! The trees are blooming and the flowers are flourishing, no doubt about it, winter is over. I say that with more confidence than the last months comment on Tradewinds. I think that we are all pleased at the change and are looking for one more year of good times.

Chloe is growing and there is no stopping it. Look for the upcoming Jewish Voice for an article on yours truly, along with the Asbury Park Press! Keep your peepers peeled! We've impressed ourselves with the new cover design and hope that Elle doesn't cringe. Hey...boycott the French, read Chloe! As American as apple pie, Calvin Klein, and Donna Karen. We've got it all right here.

Check out new maternity wear from Beautiful Journey Maternity and hand made hip belts by Taylor Norton, all available to you, right in your backyard.

I have been putting services to the test for you, my readers. Under the treatment of Dr. Isaac Cohen at The Beautiful You Laser and Rejuvenation Center, I am subjecting a nameless part of my body to see if laser hair removal is better than it sounds. Keep reading over the next few issues to see whether it's worth your time, money, and ditching that razor.

I was fortunate to have breakfast with Congressman Rush Holt and other members of NJAWBO in discussing the issues women business owners face in the world today. I thank them for the opportunity and hope to see changes in the future. We also are working with Monmouth University, my alma mater, to get an internship program set up for its Journalism students. Keep your fingers crossed.

Every day is a new and exciting journey and we are thrilled to welcome CoCo Pari, Salon Maris, Hair Concepts and Day Spa, Noir Photography, and Earth Spirit Yoga Bags as our newest advertisers. From the weather to the war, we hope that Chloe brings you a moment of peace and tranquility from the hectic day to day rush that seems to be out of our control.

So sit back and relax. Fix your favorite drink and kick up your heels. This month Chloe will show you tips on purchasing your first home and you don't even have to be a Mrs.! We spotlight a personal trainer who gets results and passes her secrets to you. Do you have children? Do you have a legal guardian set up for them? We show you what you need to know about choosing a guardian for your child and also give you 5 tips on how to be a hero! Let our His View columnist, Frank Spina, take you through the basic rules of the "Pick-up Line." Trust us, this you do not want to miss! So let's get started, we've worked hard for you and hope you enjoy and see you next month.
